The main character was ridiculously self-absorbed so I had a hard time connecting. Reviews User-contributed reviews Add a review and share your thoughts with other readers. Or whether – as often happens – the result exceeded the intentions. The imaginary interlocutors, "Dear sirs, excuse me" I wonder what he would have said. It was a teeny bit thought-provoking, but also fairly annoying. The desire to get to the bottom and savour life – real life – beyond the roles imposed by society. You may send this item Uno up to five recipients. You could say the thread of thoughts are interminably long-winded. And there it is, one, no one and one hundred thousand. Some parts made me reflect, but other than that, just the umpteenth book I read only because I had to.
