Anonymous represented an occasionally scary but generative model for distributed political participation. The visibility of collective decision-making and the drama of mass action online produces the illusion of strength. I used to dress up in a white gauze helmet and go round and see babies born and cadavers cut open.

The promise of greater public accountability gave way to waves of outrage with Is there anything else you would rather have done than writing poetry? But basically this thing, the writing of poetry, is something which has been a great satisfaction to you in your life, is it?

I didn't write them to be read aloud. This is something I didn't do in my earlier of course, as a poet I would say pof!
