I wish I would have known that going into this book. I hope a shark tries to sucky
Red Seas Under Red Skies is another complicated heist novel with all the danger and glamour of a Bond movie. His characters are dealing with the events of the previous novel, in a mostly believable fashion, in a believable time period- its kept from becomin Although I was prepared to bite my thumb at anyone who had a problem with this book up to about pages in, over the course of the pages after that, I began to slowly, reluctantly and finally in complete exasperation, change my mind. That's not the case in a second book.
It was a little hard to follow how was on whose side and how they were messing with politics is the perfect location for some con artists?
