I don't know but at least it is not as weak as the following book called Apollyon. There are several interesting developments in this installment, which I attribute to the imaginations of the authors, Tim LaHaye and Jerry Jenkins. Time will tell in one of the subsequent novels, I Soul Harvest (Left Behind).

I keep reading because the subject matter is really interesting but the writing is what a fraudulent piece of shit this series is. I never noticed it before, the first time I read this book, but I am definitely noticing it .

Oct13, Jennifer DeFoy rated it really liked it Shelves: Book 3 ends with a bang...or better yet, an earthquake.
