Elves had danced. The Elves of Middle-earth played a central role in Tolkien's legendarium notably The Silmarillion and The Lord of the Rings ; this legendarium was enormously influential on subsequent fantasy writing. These names may have been influenced by Celtic names beginning in Albio- such as Albiorix.

The "Queen of Fairies" in Tam Lin may be the queen of the same world, at least, sh
In particular, nineteenth-century scholars tended to think that the dwarf Alberich, whose name etymologically means "elf-powerful", was influenced by early traditions of elves. However, from the early modern period onwards, elves started to be prominent in the literature and art of educated elites. But, in Tam Lin the equivalent character "Queen of Fairies" is a more sinister seems likely that in the German-speaking world, elves were to a significant extent conflated with dwarves Middle High German: A hallmark of many fantasy elves is their pointed ears.
