Shortly before his death on February 18, Luther preached four sermons in Eisleben. I wish and I ask that our rulers who have Jewish subjects exercise a sharp mercy toward these wretched people, as suggested above, to see whether this might not help though it is doubtful. Although the Jews for him were only one among many enemies he castigated with On The Jews and Their Lies fervor, although he did not sink to the horrors of the Spanish Inquisition against Jews, and although he was certainly not to blame for Adolf Hitler, Luther's hatred of the Jews is a sad and dishonorable part of his legacy, and it is not a fringe issue.

Luther, however, was not involved with later racial anti-Semitism. He expressed his views in private letters and polemics – If we know that they are doing this in secret, it is the same as if they were doing it publicly.
