Salvation is not finally in the hands of man to determine. His choices are crucial, but they are not the final, decisive power in bringing him to glory, God's sovereign grace is. The death of Christ effectually accomplished the salvation for all God's people.

Divine sovereignty in salvation involves each of the three persons of the Within the Trinity, there is one saving purpose, one saving plan, and.

Every aspect of salvation is born out of the purpose, and the will, and the plan of God that when it is accomplished it may be solely and only to.

She had an external worship of God but without Christ, the gospel is of Christ, without the gospels she is lost as Christ is the way to the Father. It was simply because of the sovereign pleasure of God.

The heart of the sinner before salvation is shut, in darkness bound to Satan. I For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: The infinite greatness of God, and His exaltation above us, appears in nothing more, than in His sovereignty. And therefore when mercy sought the salvation of sinners, the question was, h sovereignty appears glorious, in that it reaches their most important affairs, even the eternal state and condition of the souls of men.
