For centuries homosexuals have been vilified and persecuted by the Catholic Church, but the Church has always had a very inconvenient secret. My story is the story of a Church that will go to any length, even to violate its core Sophistry and Gay Sex In The Catholic Church values that form the fundamental tenets of faith—to protect its public image. His experience is remarkably similar to the treatment experienced by lay Catholics. I am being singled out for 13 years of Church vitriol, public character assassination and communal shunning—my superiors claim that they are simply trying to protect the Church from scandal—these same Church leaders and others are lying, prevaricating and sabotaging any effort to uncover the burgeoning clergy sexual abuse scandal that would soon rock the front pages of newspapers all over the world. Secrecy story of his year battle with the Church to save his ministry exemplifies the spiritual isolation, emotional distress and ecclesiastical reprisals every gay priest most fears.
