I don't think I will be picking up the second one. I haven't decided if I am going to read the next book s in the series Be warned, though, the ending felt more like a respite before another outbreak of chasing .

The characters spend so much time agonizing over all the big changes in their lives I couldn't stop reading because i just had to know what happened to the four characters that we meet as the main focus of the book. I do plan on reading the next book because I'd like to know what happens .

Jana's way of keeping the action going is refreshing. Jana's way of keeping the action going is refreshing. But I felt like there was something missing with the love connection.
