It is way above novels that try to tackle the natural world but fall short. Muir's sole use of incredibly positive and uplifting adjectives, only give the reader an option to see goodness and beauty. Feb 04, Bryce rated it really liked it. I think it was one of the major reasons I enjoyed this book so. Published 6 months ago. Set up a giveaway. He seems to express a spiritual experience with nature while on this sheep herding excursion, for which, by the way, he rarely gives details of the actual work of herding. My First Summer in the Sierra is his recounting of this life-altering experience.

Would you like to tell us about a lower price? It's mostly just straight up descriptions of a walk in the Sierra was a sheep herding experience for him, with wonderful descriptions of the natural features, animals, companions, pets, events, and a reverence for God's creation. Hilarious and wonderful material.
