Dreaming Anastasia (Dreaming Anastasia, book 1) by Joy Preble

I LOVE this book! "Dreaming Anastasia" is seriously off the charts excellent! I couldn't put it down. Just like the cover says, it has magic, love, power, and dreams.

This story was frustrating on many levels. Don't get me wrong, I'm not saying that this was a horrid book or something like that, I liked reading it.

ThesecondthingisthenamEthanovich.TheVampireHunter'sDaughter: She did not skirt around issues of alcohol and sex, the relationship between the two, and the uneasy waters of teenage love and heartbreak. The best part was the climax and conclusion although what happens to Anastasia is sort of a let. To view it, click .

AndshewasstillworryingabouttherowncellphoneinEthan'sloft?Joy Preble had a fantastic idea with this novel but reading it felt as if I were reading a rough draft - it felt as if the characters needed a little more dimension to truly weave within the plot the authoress has thought up.
