President Bedjaoui made a similar observation in Paragraph 20 of his Declaration: My Opinion will show what these rules and principles are, and how it is impossible, in the light of the nature and effects of nuclear weapons, for these to be satisfied. The above-quoted excerpts taken from the Dissenting Opinions by Judge Weeramantry and Judge Koroma should also provide the reader with a basic understanding of the monumental importance of the The Criminality of Nuclear Deterrence Opinion itself:

VII;J.UnanimousRulingonNuclearDisarmament. For almost all intents and purposes, the World Court held that the threat and use of nuclear weapons are illegal. Of course, the judge might decide to strip you of all your expert witnesses, both technical and legal.

The term "warcrime" is the technical expression for a violation of the law of Weapons and International Humanitarian Law. Nevertheless, by comparison, Judge Vereschetin from Russia and Judge Shi from China did not dissent from Paragraph 2 E despite the fact that their respective states of nationality were indeed nuclear weapons states.
