I couldn't put this book down; it's chock-full of adventure, betrayal, secrets, . it's been a month since I've finished, I can't stop thinking about it.

Books You Just Can't Put Down - How many have you read?

So, in that video I said this: "the key is finding a book that is going to really interest you a book that you just can't put down», and this means that you can't stop.

No matter what your favorite genre is, it's a fairly universal idea that the best type of book is the kind that you just can't put down. However.

Classic Novels You Can't Put Down. I asked my friends to recommend 18th, 19th and early 20th-century novels that are real page turners: not.

I was just going to suggest checking with your library for downloadable audiobooks. What a great post! Read it this year as part of my PopSugar Reading Challenge!
Both audiobooks are incredible! They are thick books... The Forgetting Time Author: This is about a young doctor who is diagnosed with lung cancer. A new YA author J.
I just finished I Let You Go. Good as Gone Author: Did you know that The Orphan Train has seven books that follow it?
