Feb 17, Mummy's Naughty Corner rated it it was amazing
Shelves: The epilogue does help in making the reader believe there is an HEA, which helped me get rid of the 'squick' in the beginning that felt that there was infidelity, which is a big turn off for me. Apr 01, Karen S rated it it was amazing. I'm always very wary and skeptical of books written in first person. Unfortunately writing in first person makes it much too easy for authors to write weak characters who do a lot of navel gazing. There is heaps of it. Books by Lily Harlem. Nick had claimed it, he was in control. Certainly not as much as him, literally.
